Title of the Programme: Status of the Marginalised Women of Bangladesh

Resource Person: Saleem Samad, Deputy Editor of The Daily Messenger, Dhaka

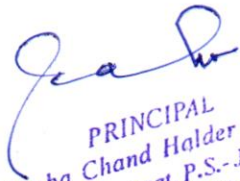

Objective of the Programme-The webinar was organized jointly with IQAC, Dhruba Chand Halder College to create awareness regarding the daily struggles and achievements of the marginalized women of Bangladesh.

Details of the Programme- The Programme began with discussions regarding the struggles of marginalized women across the globe and how educated men and women can contribute in making their voices heard. The speaker then spoke at length on the lives of marginalized women of Bangladesh and the measures taken up by the government in improving their lives. The speaker also focused on how women's labour as a farmer remains unrecognized in spite of the fact that they assist in the farm, prepare and preserve seeds for the next produce. The interactive session was fruitful as participants joined in the discussion regarding the status of marginalized women in both sides of the border.

Participants- 69

Outcome- It was an extremely successful event. The participants eagerly listened to the talk and asked relevant questions in the question answer session following the lecture.
