The screenshot shows a Google Meet interface. On the left, a presentation slide titled "Intellectual Property Rights: Patent for Protection and Application of Invention" is displayed. The slide content includes:

- ◆ The Patent System in India is governed by Laws amended as per TRIPS (Trade Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights) Agreement under WTO (World Trade Organization)
- ◆ TRIPS provides for minimum standards and not harmonization of standards for protection of IP
- Intellectual Property (IP)
 - ✓ is intangible
 - ✓ has the character of a property
 - ✓ Is recognized by national and international laws
 - ✓ can be transferred and licensed like any other property and
 - ✓ is protected against wrongful expropriation

On the right side of the screen, a grid of participant video thumbnails is visible, including individuals like Apurba Das, Milton Purkait, and others. The bottom of the screen shows the Google Meet control bar with icons for chat, mute, and other functions.
